

"Where rights secured by Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them." - Miranda v. State of Arizona, 384 U. S. 436, 491 (1966)

"Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law: but in our system, while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the People, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts."... "For, the very idea that man may be compelled to hold his life, or the means of living, or any material right essential to the enjoyment of life, at the mere will of another, seems to be intolerable in any country where freedom prevails, as being the essence of slavery itself" Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U. S. 356 (1886) [bold and underscore emphasis added] www.thehealthyamerican.org www.1776reloaded.org
